Bonaventure Management Partners LLC Announces the Addition of Hugh J. Morgan as Senior Advisor

CHICAGO, ILLINOIS (January 14, 2013) Bonaventure Management Partners LLC, a professional advisory and consulting firm, announced today that Hugh J. Morgan has joined the organization as a Senior Advisor.

“We are delighted that Hugh has joined Bonaventure Management Partners”, said Jim Kline, a Managing Director of Bonaventure. “Hugh brings a unique perspective to our organization, blending his background as an accountant, a tax advisor and an attorney. He has extensive experience counseling and providing solutions to businesses on a broad variety of issues.”

Mr. Morgan is a certified public accountant and an attorney who works with small and medium sized, closely-held business organizations in matters of tax and business planning, mergers and acquisitions, business valuations, shareholder dispute resolution and representation before the Internal Revenue Service and other taxing authorities.

Hugh was the Partner-In-Charge of the Deloitte & Touche Toledo, Ohio office where he was responsible for accounting, tax and consulting services to the Toledo office clients. He was an Adjunct Professor at the University of Toledo and currently serves as an American Arbitration Association neutral.

He received a Bachelor in Science in Business Administration (Magna Cum Laude) from John Carroll University and a Juris Doctor degree (Cum Laude) from Cleveland-Marshall College of Law. Mr. Morgan also received a Certificate in Advanced Management Studies from Northwestern University Kellogg School of Management.
